

A pregnant woman
never takes pills alone

A baby's health depends on the mother's health.

When pregnant women take pain pills, their babies may be born suffering from drug withdrawal.

It is important to talk to a medical professional about all medications you are taking, including prescription pain pills, to protect your baby from Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome (NAS).

Help is available:

www.BornDrugFreeFL.com

1-877-233-5656